22-23 URI WRT104 & ENG110 SUMMER READING ASSIGNMENTS

Mrs. DeRiso derisot@lincolnps.org

Welcome to the URI English courses offered at Lincoln High School.

Your requirements for summer reading are listed below.

1. LHS Summer reading assignment for entering 12th grade (Can also find this on LHS Website and in URI Registration Google Classroom)

2. REQUIRED TEXT for the course: WRT104 Writer/designer: A Guide to Making Multimodal Projects by Ball, Cheryl E, Jennifer Sheppard, and Kristin L. Arola. Bedford/St. Martin's, 2018.

To be prepared for this course, you will read and take notes, using the Alphanumeric note-taking style, for the pages and chapters assigned below from the text.

*You will keep these notes and be ready to use/apply them as each course begins. Please keep them in a safe place to review and apply in class.

1. Writer/designer: A Guide to Making Multimodal Projects Chapters notes that are clear, organized, and thorough on Chapters 1-7 or pp. 3-204.
2. Use the link above to understand how to outline your notes.
3. Complete the Rhetorical Analysis on p. 57-58, completing #1-6. Use the information and model from the chapter to support your work. DO NOT do the “write/design!option” on pp 58-59.

Be ready to submit all work during the first week of class in August.
